THERE IS no nevertising medium in Sestern Connecticut equal to The Suf-letin for business results.

Meny friends took advantage of the fine weather Wednesday and attended the fellowship meeting of the churches of Bourah, Exeter, Franklin, Goshou, Leannon and Norwich Town, held at the Franklin church.

The general topic, considered undervarious aspects, was Facts and Figure 1975. The general topic considered undervarious aspects, was Facts and Figure 1975. The first of Exeter was moderator. The discussion was opened by Rev. C. A. Peck of Hanover, with a consideration of the theme. Facis Are More Enriching Than Fiction. Rev. Marcus Burrof Goshen stated some of the Great Facts in Religion. It was followed by Rev. Harry Grimes of Windham, who presented Some Fictions in Religion. Invitation was given to any who cared to do so to participate in the discussion. Response was made by Rev. H. S. Arnold of Norwich and Rev. E. J. Ayers of Franklin. The laddes of the Franklin church served lunch in the town hall and were assisted by Mrs. F. H. Rose, Misses Eduna Peck, Grace and Edith Mosier, Markel Brown and Mrs. M. A. Belande.

The afternoon session was opened with a praise service under the leadership of Rev. C. H. Ricketts of Norwich and included a song in Chineshy the two children of Rev. E. H. Smith.

The only business presented was an incitation from the Lebanon church to field the next, fellowship meeting with the m. and the appointment of H. A. Deadle to select a committee of all the churches interested to decide how the lunches at future meetings should be provided.
